

Annual Campus Crime Report

The Annual Campus Crime Report is published on the Faith International University (FIU) website each year and includes crime statistics and other information for the most recent calendar years. This report is published in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Safety & Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. These crime statistics include certain categories of crimes required for disclosure under the act which occurred on the campus or in campus buildings owned or controlled by FIU.

The Dean of Students is responsible for preparing and publishing this report. This report also includes current information about campus crime statistics, crime prevention information, crime reporting procedures and contact information.

This report is made available to all students, employees, and all potential students and employees of FIU through the FIU website. This report and information is provided pursuant to the disclosure requirements of the Campus Crime and Awareness and Security Act of 1990.

General Procedures for Reporting a Crime or Emergency

All members of the FIU community including students, faculty, staff and visitors are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents to the Dean of Students, Registrar, Building Manager, or other FIU personnel in a timely manner. To report a crime on campus, call 888.777.7675 ext. 120. Police, Fire or Medical Emergencies may also be reported to the City of Tacoma by calling 911.
